But the sect claimed one of the greatest prizes in the world control of New York City. Of course, the Camarilla was never entirely absent from the city, but in recent years no clan held so firmly there, among the enemy, as did the Tremere. Now the story of their covert activities and greatest victory is told. A fledgling prince restlessly pacing the battlements. A Tremere novice walking the razorwire tightrope. In the wake of the Camarilla...
