

India's Unique Transformation Programme

By Jasveer Singh

Kalpaz Publications/Gyan Books Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, India, 2014. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. Challenge to Indian political leaders- are they competent, capable, desirous and willing to fulfill the real deserved needs of all the citizens everywhere in India? This book presents, after a brief introduction, a critical, factual analysis of the prevailing situation in India with an insight about the reasons and causes of the difficult living conditions of majority of people in spite of the availability of plenty of resources in India - both natural resources and talented human resources. Then, a magnificent vision for the nation and all the population is presented moving India in the top 10 of the UN Human Development Index from the current 135th position within about 5 to 8 years. For achieving the visionary goal, a unique transformation programme (unique because it is advanced, comprehensive, integrated, powerful, extraordinary, progressive, innovative, drastic and complete) of about 100 very huge projects and solutions, their implementation strategy with very effective solutions, formulae, processes and techniques that are based on already available, well-implemented, proven models in the developed West European countries are presented. This can be used for miraculously fast and balanced development...
