Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book shows you how to grab success from the clutches of failure. Finally. A simple guide to overcoming the obstacles we all face from time to time in our entrepreneurial journeys. If you are starting out, these are the problems to avoid, if you are already in play, these could be catching you out and you don't even know! The biggest problem of all is to give up, usually just before reaping the rewards of success. This book is designed to help you make sure that you do not fall foul of that final classic trap. It's never too late to breathe life into your business venture. The authors' expectation is that this will release you to achieve the success you truly deserve. Some people are chained to their business, when the business should be providing freedom and income, not the other way round as happens so often. Having been described as a serial entrepreneur, since being in business about 20 years, the author has come across many business opportunities and started many new ventures. The best have been those that added to existing businesses. Not every new venture has worked or even been spectacular, although many have. The authors' clients have included IBM, The Chartered Institute Of Marketing, The Institute Of Directors, Panasonic, Sony, and many more large and small. Whether B2B or B2C the author has seen the problems he describes lurking everywhere, hidden and unexpectedly draining profits and income from otherwise successful and deserving businesses. During the process the author could have easily have been persuaded to stop. In truth, the author is always nervous about starting new ventures, the author knows...
