But it is only right that the young lady should be considered, as you have pointed out, and that I should BIRDS IN THE BUSH. 14 5 accept my cue from you. I accept it. I understand that at Christmas they will complete their preparations for May, and that their marriage will be put in final train by themselves, and that nothing will remain for us but to put ourselves in train also, and have everything ready for our formal release from our trusts, on Edwin s birthday. That is my understanding, assented Mr. Grewgious, as they shook hands to part. God bless them both! God save them both! cried jasper. I said, bless them, remarked the former, looking back over his shoulder. I said, save them, returned the latter. Is there any difference? CH A P T E R X. Smoothing the Way. IT has been often enough remarked that women have a curious power of divining the characters of men, which would seem to be innate and instinctive; seeing that it is arrived at through no patient process of reasoning, that it can give no satisfactory or sufficient account of itself, and that it pronounces in the most confident manner even against accumulated observation on the part of the other sex. But it has not been quite so often remarked that this power (fallible, like...
