 THE GREAT AMERICAN DESERT THERE is a great desert in the interior of North America. It is almost as large as the famous Sain1 of Africa. It is fifteen hundred miles long, and a thousand wide. Now, if it were of a regular shape -that is to say, a parallelogram-you could at once compute its area, by multiplying the length upon the breadth and you would obtain one million and a half for the result-one million and a half of square miles. But its outlines are as yet very imperfectly known; and although it is fully fifteen hundred miles long, and in some places a thousand in breadth, its surface-extent is probably not over one million of square miles, or twenty-five times the size of England. . Fancy a desert twenty-five times as big as all England! Do you not think that it has received a most appropriate name when it is called the Great American Desert Now, my young friend, what do you understand by a desert I think I can guess. , When you read or hear of Table of Contents CONTENTS; I THE GREAT...
