

Never Mock God: An Unauthorized Investigation Into Paranormal State s I Am Six Case (Paperback)

By Kirby Robinson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Paranormal State s I Am Six episode is a perfect American horror tale -- for all the wrong reasons. It stars the ambitious founder of the Paranormal Research Society, an attention-seeking client, a bumbling group of paranormal investigators, a psychic-medium in search of ratings, and a rogue exorcist. Their most controversial case featured Lara, a 26-year-old woman from Quincy, Illinois who is allegedly possessed by a demon called Six. The show airs a 60-minute episode just before Halloween 2008, and the nation watches as Reverend Calder, the show's first go-to exorcist, performs an unnecessary exorcism that fails. The author and his team of investigators dig into both I Am Six and The Possession: Return of Six cases and discover the deceptions, misrepresentations, shoddy investigative work, and an outright impersonation by someone in a key role. By the end of this fast-paced but thorough book, Kirby Robinson proves that the paranormal doesn't mix with the theological. You'll travel along with the team to Quincy where they interview neighbors and tour Lara's now-former home. They verify facts and...
