

I Just Woke Up Dead: Part 2: Highs

By Justin Donner

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.After climbing out of part 1: hell the next chapter in the i just woke up dead series leads the reader by the hand down a road filled with tempting yet illusory highs. Sex and drugs take over as the spiral quickens, addiction firmly grasping what was a promising future and strangling it with guilt and pain. Legal issues begin piling up, dysfunction escalates and the ramifications of all these behaviors are seen throughout the alternate chapters while navigating through three months in a lock-down psychiatric hospital. Even while committed, the highs perpetually sought by an addict rear their ugly heads. Sex and drugs become readily available to cope with the nightmares realized in part 1: hell. Codependency is showcased as an abuser and his victim rekindle their distorted version of love despite the harrowing reality of the relationship. This 2nd part of the series examines the elements of addiction often glamorized in the media or exaggerated or trivialized in other memoirs. Professionals in chemical dependency fields are given a thorough presentation of what addiction...
