The authors and leading market research practitioners have achieved a textbook that focuses on the process of conducting successful market research. The student is guided through this process in a logical and systematic way commencing with initial exploratory research and ending with media selection, planning and monitoring. In addition to this the European based examples and up-to-date nature of the book have ensured its popularity throughout four editions. This fifth edition has been updated to take account of changes within the dynamic marketing environment. 496 pp. Englisch.
