Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from No; 26 Jayne Street The lease was signed on the 23d of February, in Pepe Brothers basement office, at the right-hand corner of the Square where you turn into it from Macdougall Street and Fourth Avenue. Between pride of possession and the difficulty of explaining the matter satisfactorily to the Aunts, Neith was conscious of a note of flatness in the determined resistance of Pepe Brothers to any sort of pleasantness between themselves and their client, which might be brought up against them in the ever-present possibility of deferred payments. Once, however, she was away from the crabbed atmosphere of the renting office, Neith gave rein to exhilaration. It was all rather formless and out of proportion to the occasion. There was little in the leasing of three rooms with bath and kitchenette at Twenty-Six Jayne Street, which should have carried such a lift with it, particularly as one of the rooms, except for a narrow slit of half walled-up window, was dark, and the plumbing doubtful. But for a month or six weeks past the...
