Eran didn't want to go to the Juneteenth celebration with his grandmother because the other kids teased him. He had a bad feeling whenever he thought about being different. But through this difficult experience, Eran learns that God created him just the way he is for a special purpose. Nobody Knows was created for African-American children ages 4-7, who are learning important life issues about self-esteem and their loving, sovereign Creator. Editorial Reviews About the Author A. Shelton Rollins began writing at an early age. Along with the opportunity to write freelance articles for the Ames Tribune in Ames, Iowa, she worked full time as a science writer/editor. She has authored Angels Watchin'.
