Consolidation talk has had no influence on practical doings in the market, it being a foregone conclusion Here that it is a quesioon between Hoadly and others who have control of the majority of the stock of the Tennessee company, and the Hanover National Bank crowd. The mine strike is still on with the force with which it started. The question will come up again on July 1 when the operators who signed the scale will be called upon to see about It for another year. The largest operators have fought a stout fight. Their coal output has been cut down and so has their output of iron, but they are...
