It's interesting that we tend to seek for answers with the same brain that has produced the questions and then wonder why we keep the questions but not have the answers or why the answers never seem to match our initial perceptions or expectations when making the questions? And yet, for some reason, we persist for months, and even years of our life, with the same questions. Very often, we give up on finding the answers, but the questions remain, buried in our subconscious mind. And so, and ironically, I find myself realizing that the best answers can only be seen and not searched. Truly, you can only look at what lays in front of you, because life is perfect already, and anything that can be found beyond our preconceived ideas about life is really beyond our preconceptions, thoughts or expectations, which means one cannot be without not being. In this book, I will show you what I've found when forgetting myself, when allowing myself to feel stupid and realizing that I know very little about life, and in specific, women, which is something I had to do if I wanted to truly know how to conquer a ten instead of settling for less. I actually thought I had conquered many tens before in my life, you know, those women every man wants, that they try to anxiously seduce even as she is right next to me, or that they want to learn how to seduce by becoming my friends first and copying what I do next. But recent experiences shown me that the level can always be upgraded. Those tens are now ones when compared to...
